CANNOT MEET TRACTION COSTS

(By Associated Press) BERLIN, Aug. 9. Owing to the enormous increase in the cost of operation, street car service in many of the smaller German cities has been discontinued. Jena, Weimburg, Heilbronn and Friedberg are among the towns trying now to get along without trams. Attempts were made to keep the lines going by radical increases in fares, but the public unable to pay the price took to walking. Berlin and other large cities, where street car traffic has fallen off alarmingly because of increased fares, are facing the problem of reorganizing the service, retaining only those lines which are absolutely necessary for the accommodation of persons having to travel long distances. Wagons and carts brought out to give a lift to pedestrians during recent strikes of street car employees have indicated which routes through Berlin are vital for transportation.

AMUSEMENTS

"A SPORTING CHANCE" A CHARMING PICTURE The question of whether a girl should obey every impulse which rushes into her mind, is dealt with in a highly interesting way in a new Paramount picture starring Ethel Clayton, which will be shown at the Butler theatre today. A delightful and exciting story is woven around this theme. The story is unique and original and has an interesting and unexpected finish. The original story was written by Roger L. Sherman and appeared in a recent issue of the Snappy Stories magazine. George Melford, who has directed Mrs. Clayton in other recent successes, was "at the helm" during the filming of the picture. Heading the supporting cast is Jack Holt, who plays the role of the escaped convict whom Carey Brent, the heroine, undertakes to reform. Others included in the cast are Herbert Standing, Margaret Green and Howard Davies.
